

Concrete Thinking

Examples of this error:

- "What do you mean I have poor working habits. I was only late a few times."
- "Sure I understand what family means. What does that have to do with my not helping out around the house?"
- "What's to understand about money? You get it, you spend it."

A. What does forgetting to meet a friend have to do with hogging the popcorn on a movie date? What's the big picture?

B. What does saving newspapers to be recycled have to do with giving up your seat on a bus to an elderly person?

C. What does sleeping all weekend have to do with insisting your mother drive you to the store immediately?

D. What does being late to work have to do with being nasty to a counselor?
